

We may not be living in a sci-fi movie, but one thing is sure : Goddam time warps exist ! Otherwise, how on earth could you explain the very existence of Huma Bird ? However adamantly they claim to be from France, we ain't gonna be fooled : these guys are straight out of the 70's. There's no other way you can make sense of their Southern rock fraught with powerful vintage guitars, pounding beats, raspy vocals and venomous tunes. Yep ! Their roots are a rough mixture of booze (Southern comfort), garb and music (from the Stones to The Allman Brothers Band, Creedence, Humble Pie and, and more recent addition, The Black Crowes).
